

REMARKS

[0003] Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration and allowance of all of the claims of the application. Claims 1-5, 7-16, 35-39, 41-44, 58-62, and 64-72 are presently pending. Claims amended herein are 1, 7, 9, 11, 35, 42, 44, 58, 64, 66, 69, and 70. Claims withdrawn or cancelled herein are 6, 16-34, 40, 45-57, and 63. New claims added herein are none.

Statement of Substance of Interview

[0004] Although the Examiner and I—the undersigned representative for the Applicant—did not actually have a formal interview, we did exchange ideas, opinions, and proposed claims via voice-mail messages and a fax.

[0005] Applicant herein amends the claims in the manner consistent with the amendments proposed via a fax. The Examiner indicated, in one voice-mail message, that I should take a look at a particular reference, namely Razavi (US Pat. # 6,370,449). The implication seems to be that Razavi may disclose what is recited in the pending claims. Herein, Applicant explains why Razavi does not anticipate the pending claims.

[0006] Accordingly, Applicant submits that the pending claims are allowable over the cited art for at least the reasons discussed during the interview.

Formal Request for an Interview

[0007] If the Examiner's reply to this communication is anything other than allowance of all pending claims, then I formally request an interview with the Examiner. I encourage the Examiner to call me—the undersigned representative for the Applicant—so that we can talk about this matter so as to resolve any outstanding issues quickly and efficiently over the phone.

[0008] Please contact me or my assistant to schedule a date and time for a telephone interview that is most convenient for both of us. While email works great for us, I welcome your call to either of us as well. Our contact information may be found on the last page of this response.

Claim Amendments

[0009] Without conceding the propriety of the rejections herein and in the interest of expediting prosecution, Applicant amends claims 1, 7, 9, 11, 35, 42, 44, 58, 64, 66, 69, and 70 herein. These amendments are made to clarify the claim language and not to avoid cited art or for any statutory reason.

Allowable Subject Matter

[0010] Applicant appreciates the Examiners' acknowledgement that dependent claims 6, 7, 9, 11, 40, 42, 44, 63, 64, 66, and 68-72 would be allowable if re-written in an independent form. Applicant's amendments herein are designed to pull the content of the allowable subject matter into their base claims.

Formal Matters

[0011] This section addresses any formal matters (e.g., objections) raised by the Examiner.

Claims

[0012] The Examiner objects to claim 70 because it mistakenly depends upon itself. Herein, Applicant amends this claim, as shown above, to correct the informality noted by the Examiner.

Substantive Matters

Claim Rejections under §§ 102 and/or 103

[0013] Claims 1-5, 8, 10, 12-15, 35-39, 41, 43, 58-62, 65, and 67 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102 based upon Kolls (U.S. Pat. # 7,003,289). In light of the amendments presented herein and the decisions/agreements reached during the above-discussed Examiner interview, Applicant submits that these rejections are moot. Accordingly, Applicant asks the Examiner to withdraw these rejections.

Razavi

[0014] Furthermore, the Examiner indicated, in one voice-mail message, that Applicant should take a look at a particular reference, namely Razavi (US Pat. # 6,370,449). The implication seems to be that Razavi may disclose what is recited in the pending claims.

[0015] Upon examination of Razavi, Applicant notices that Razavi never discloses acting upon, of or with a "browsable network document." With regard to claim 1, for example, Razavi fails to disclose (with emphasis added):

- ❑ "generating...a browsable network document including vehicle system data from one or more vehicle systems;
- ❑ providing the browsable network document over a network to enable remote viewing of the vehicle system data;
- ❑ displaying a web page based on the browsable network document.

Note that this list is mere is list of examples of those disclosures that Razavi is missing. The list is not intended to be exhaustive.

[0016] Accordingly, Applicant submits that Razavi does not disclose all of the elements and features recited by the claims. Accordingly, Applicant asks the Examiner to withdraw Razavi from consideration as a reference.

Dependent Claims

[0017] In addition to its own merits, each dependent claim is allowable for the same reasons that its base claim is allowable. Applicant requests that the Examiner withdraw the rejection of each dependent claim where its base claim is allowable.

Conclusion

[0018] All pending claims are in condition for allowance. Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration and prompt issuance of the application. If any issues remain that prevent issuance of this application, the Examiner is urged to contact me before issuing a subsequent Action. Please call/email me or my assistant at your convenience.

Respectfully Submitted,
